

Feasts of Tabernacles

- Numbers 13:26-33
- Passover and Pentecost are only a few weeks apart
- Feast of Tabernacle is a stand alone

Feasts of Tabernacles

- Feast of Tabernacle= Prophetic Feast
- Feast of Tabernacle was a season with no rain
- Spiritually you learn to seasons

Feasts of Tabernacles

- We should know how to answer our opponents
- God does not stretch us beyond what we can handle
- Can you defend the faith?

Feasts of Tabernacles

- The mark of maturity is the ability to discern
- Opposition should not cause you to retreat
- Lack of discernment will cause you to fall for anything

Feasts of Tabernacles

- There are some prayers you should thank God He didn't answer
- Being called does not mean you are prepared for the task

Feasts of Tabernacles

- Part of the Tabernacle is being able to see the giants but understand something larger is happening
- God's will is going to be done

Feasts of Tabernacles

- Temporary setbacks will not stop God's plan-
- 1 Thessalonians 2:18
- God always leaves a remnant
- Only you can stop you!

Feasts of Tabernacles

- You can be hindered
- When you are on the verge of your breakthrough – Satan will send someone to distract you
- It will be someone close to you

Feasts of Tabernacles

- Learn to draw lines in your life.
- You must be defined by God, you must learn to love yourself.
- Kadesh Barnea- Deuteronomy 1:19

Feasts of Tabernacles

- Moses' family was mad because he married an Ethiopian –Numbers 12
- It's never about what surrounds you it's about you surrounding it.

Feasts of Tabernacles

- Believing you can overcome does not mean being in denial
- You must pay attention otherwise you can be defeated

Feasts of Tabernacles

- Acknowledge where you are but fight to get where God wants you to be.
- It's not about what you see, it's about what He says

Feasts of Tabernacles

- What God brings you out, should be the cause you are championing
- Use it to the glory of the Tabernacle

Feasts of Tabernacles

- We are called to have a voice in all areas
- When the wrong thing is believed due to not understanding – pollutes the cause

Feasts of Tabernacles

- We are losing our cause because people do not understand the Feast of Tabernacle
- Leaders are afraid to be truthful

Feasts of Tabernacles

- When you do not understand Tabernacle, you will always see yourself as small