

Are You Elated? Rom. 5:1-2(NLT)

- Elated- is an emotion of great delight, caused by something exceptional.
- What a person displays on the outside is a reflection of what is going on in the inside.

Are You Elated? Rom. 5:1-2(NLT)

- Your belief system has to come out of you someway.
- Many Christians do religious stuff, but not spiritual.

Are You Elated? Rom. 5:1-2(NLT)

- We don't see ourselves how others see us.
- When you are delightful, you are contagious.

Are You Elated? Rom. 5:1-2(NLT)

- Being an elated person has nothing to do with your highs or lows, but how you are spiritually (maturity).

Are You Elated? Rom. 5:1-2(NLT)

- If you are given to emotions, everyone knows your disposition in the moment(day).
- You only respond on how you feel.

Are You Elated? Rom. 5:1-2(NLT)

- Your emotions have you walking in the flesh, but not in the spirit.
- You respond on your emotions, not from a base position (a lie or truth).

Are You Elated? Rom. 5:1-2(NLT)

- You cant be the exception and emotional.
- When you are exceptional nothing matters that will shake your position or faith.

Are You Elated? Rom. 5:1-2(NLT)

- God made me a certain way.... (exceptional).
- Being right with God has nothing to do with your deeds, but your faith.

Are You Elated? Rom. 5:1-2(NLT)

- God made you right is the only way you can be right.
- VS. 2 not undeserved, but privileged
- When you are privileged an attitude comes with it.

Are You Elated? Rom. 5:1-2(NLT)

- When you are privileged, you act like it.
- You are so privileged you cant wait to tell someone.

Are You Elated? Rom. 5:1-2(NLT)

- Rom. 4:16 (NLT) product of Abraham your spiritual father
- A lot of us came from nothing, but God brought us up (Rom. 4:17, NLT)

Are You Elated? Rom. 5:1-2(NLT)

- We have the hope because of Abraham.
- Rom. 4:25 Abraham did not respond with emotions, but became more exceptional.

Are You Elated? Rom. 5:1-2(NLT)

- When opposition comes your way when you are privileged, your faith should grow not your emotions.

Are You Elated? Rom. 5:1-2(NLT)

- When you are privileged you don't run away from opposition.

Are You Elated? Rom. 5:1-2(NLT)

- God will provide.
- When God has called you to do something , get busy and be elated
- Rom. 5:3-6

Are You Elated? Rom. 5:1-2(NLT)

- God will provide.
- When God has called you to do something , get busy and be elated
- Rom. 5:3-6

Are You Elated? Rom. 5:1-2(NLT)

- Rom. 5:3 Joy (elated)
- The longer you go through something, you gain strength and character.